

Charleston > excellence is our standard County SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Preschool Intervention Program, established to assist three and four year olds who have varying special education needs, is looking for peer mentors.

Why should your child be a peer mentor in the program?

- Peer mentors help promote social interactions, language development, and appropriate behaviors for preschool children with special needs.
- Peer mentors experience many different types of disabilities, gaining an appreciation of diversity.
- Peer mentors learn foundational skills and school behaviors.

What are characteristics of an appropriate peer?
