Teacher of the Year Bill Dickinson

“As Teacher of the Year, I share the passion and commitment of our entire staff at Carolina Park Elementary to create a safe, engaging and empowering learning experience every day for each student. This year’s extraordinary collaboration between teachers, parents, and community members to reach both the academic and social-emotional needs of every student is a testament to the incredible strength and perseverance of our Carolina Park Elementary school community. Together, we continue to build a thriving, inclusive school culture that puts the needs of students at the forefront of our daily mission.”
