

Charleston County ECPAC

CCSD Exceptional Children's Parent Advisory Council

The Exceptional Children Parent Advisory Council (Charleston-ECPAC) is a positive, solution-oriented parent advisory council that advocates for ALL students receiving special education services within Charleston County School District. The ECPAC focuses on collaboratively working with school and district officials towards the continuous improvement of implementation of services for students with disabilities. Our three main goals are: Awareness, Information, and Encouragement.

We strive to include members from all learning areas, grade levels, geographic locations within Charleston County, and eligibility categories. If you would like to become a member of the Charleston ECPAC, please email the Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, and Secretary at ecpac.liaison.2018@gmail.com.

The ECPAC currently meets on the 2nd Monday of every month, except June. All meetings are open to the public. Information sessions, open to the public, are held in September, October, February, and April. Meetings begin promptly at 6:30 p.m. Meetings location will be determined and announced prior to each meeting.

If you would like to share information and or concerns with the council members, please contact the ECPAC Chair, Vice-Chair, and Secretary at ecpac.liaison.2018@gmail.com, or call the Department of Exceptional Children at 843-937-6500.
