CCSD District 10 Elementary School Principals and Parents,

The St. Andrews Constituent School District 10 Board of Trustees has approved a newly adopted attendance zone for Ashley River Creative Arts Elementary School. The new attendance zone will be effective with a phase-in process beginning with incoming kindergarteners in August of 2020.

The approved attendance zone is effective this coming school year, the 2020-2021 school year. A map of the new zone can be viewed at:

New attendance lines, as well as the new bus routes, will be implemented in August 2020. All newly zoned rising kindergartners should register and report to Ashley River Creative Arts for the new school year. Families with children in grades not affected by this change may apply for a seat at Ashley River Creative Arts through the School Choice program. The application window is open until February 28, 2020. Seats are pending lottery selections and space.

If a newly zoned kindergarten student also has a sibling who intends to apply to Ashley River Creative Arts through the School Choice process, we encourage both students to submit a school choice application so their family connection can be linked for sibling priority placement on the waitlist. This priority will not guarantee sibling acceptance. More information about the school choice process can be found at ccsdschools/schoolchoice.

A community engagement event will be hosted in the coming weeks to share information and answer questions. Thank you for supporting education in CCSD.

Sincerely,

Rodney Lewis
D10 Constituent Board Chair
