North Charleston, SC – Students at Malcom C. Hursey Montessori School were treated to a dance performance November 19, 2021 as a reward for surpassing a school-wide fundraising goal.

Students raised almost $17,000 towards the 2021 Fun Run. The school-wide goal was $10,000.

Local performers Kyle "K'Otic" Johnson and Lamar "Aero" Hunter treated students and staff to a combination of break dancing, stunts, and acting. The big finale included K'Otic jumping over a row of seated students and a teacher.

The high energy dance duo have performed for 15 years and have credits that include MTV'S Sweet 16, Made, American Ninja Warrior, and local commercials.
