Media Advisory

Dedication ceremony for Stono Park Elementary School

Who: Students, parents, community members, and media outlets are welcomed and encouraged to attend.

What: Stono Park Elementary School students and staff are back home in a new building, and ready to celebrate with the community at a dedication ceremony. This event will commemorate the state-of-the-art facility in West Ashley, which officially opened its doors to students August 21, 2019.

Featured speakers include City of Charleston Mayor John Tecklenburg, Charleston County School District (CCSD) Superintendent Gerrita Postlewait, CCSD Board Chair Rev. Dr. Eric Mack, District 10 Constituent Board Chair Rodney Lewis, and Principal Kimberly Riggins.

A tour of the school will follow the ceremony.

Where: Stono Park Elementary School, 314 Huntley Drive, Charleston, SC 29407

When: Wednesday, October 30, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.

For more information about the ceremony, contact Stono Park's principal, Kimberly Riggins, at (843) 763-1507, or CCSD's Office of Strategy and Communications at (843) 937-6303.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools spanning 1,300 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 87 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
