SCREENING PROCEDURES and RUBRIC - Creative Writing Entrance Audition for 6th - 12th Grade, (pg 1 of 3)

Creative Writing

Program Expectations

Beginning with the fundamentals of storytelling and poetry writing in Middle School, by High School, Creative Writing students are proficient with every basic element of the craft and are able to identify their voices, preferred genres and styles in preparation for their Senior Thesis (a project in which they must create, revise and publish an original 100-page book, available for purchase at Amazon.com.) Our program seeks students who are keen observers of their worlds. Applicants need to possess and show a love of words, a vivid imagination, a compelling voice, a unique vision, and a proficiency in not just grammar, conventions or literary devices, but in an ability to significantly move a reader through the written word. Finally, applicants should be genuinely voracious readers. Our hope for our students is that they will find their voices, hone their craft and pursue writing at some of the country's finest college and university writing programs upon graduation.

Audition Expectations

Students will compile a portfolio of their best work in the areas of short fiction (one short story) and poetry (two poems) and will upload it into a Google form at the end of the audition. Also, during a 50-minute timed writing, students will compose a story based on a prompt given to them at the beginning of the Zoom audition. This piece will be evaluated for its creativity, the student's ability to develop plot and character, voice, use of literary devices, and written conventions (spelling, grammar, punctuation, etc.). This part measures their raw, innate talent without the opportunity to prepare in advance or to revise. Finally, they will answer a couple of questions in the Google form after they upload their portfolio pieces to.

Audition Requirements

Grades 6-12: Students must prepare and bring in a portfolio consisting of one short story and two poems which they will upload to a Google form at the end of their audition. In addition, they will need to write based on a story prompt given at the beginning of the audition. They will have 50 minutes to complete their Zoom writing piece. This document will also be uploaded to the Google form at the end of the 50 minutes. There are a couple of questions you will be asked to respond to on the Google form after you have uploaded the portfolio and writing prompt.

Creative Writing

Audition Structure

Students will compile a portfolio of their best work in the areas of short fiction, poetry, and creative nonfiction (as applicable to their respective middle school and high school application), and upload it at the end of the audition. Also, during a 50-minute timed writing, students will compose a story based on a prompt given out at the Zoom audition. This piece will be evaluated for its creativity, the student's ability to develop plot and character, voice, use of literary devices, and written conventions (spelling, grammar, punctuation, etc.). This part of the audition requires no preparation ahead of time. Finally, students will answer two questions that are part of the Google form they will upload their document to.
