Focus/Description

James Simons Montessori School is a safe, inclusive and supportive public Montessori community. We inspire students to become confident, motivated and successful life-long learners. The school is set on the Charleston peninsula.

School Category: Montessori Magnet (D20)

Grades Offered: PreK3-8

Transportation: Provided to magnet students attending Montessori Magnets within the enrollment zone in which the school is located.

Montessori Magnet schools are those with a prescribed attendance zone within a Constituent District coupled with the opportunity for students to apply for seats available after all the attendance zone students have been placed. Transportation is provided to zone students attending this category of schools according to normal transportation regulations.
