Focus/Description

The mission of Greg Mathis Charter High School is to provide individualized and authentic learning experiences within an innovative learning environment to prepare each individual for successful citizenship and lifelong learning within a global society.

Greg Mathis Charter High School is a public Charter School that serves students in grades 9 - 12. Our charter is designed to meet the needs of all students, including those who are struggling in a traditional high school setting. As a Charter there is increased autonomy in our operations and academic program in exchange for increased accountability. There are no barriers for students to enter our school. Greg Mathis Charter High School believes wholeheartedly that every student can achieve success at some level; therefore rendering them responsible citizens.

School Category: Charter School

According to the South Carolina Department of Education and the South Carolina Charter Schools Act of 1996, a charter school is defined as a public, nonreligious, non home-based, nonprofit corporation forming a school that operates by sponsorship of a public school district, the South Carolina Public Charter School District, or a public or independent institution of higher learning, but is accountable to the board of trustees, or in the case of technical colleges, the area commission, of the sponsor which grants its charter. All students residing in Charleston County are eligible to apply to a charter school.

Please contact the school regarding transportation.
