

AMHS Parent Involvement Opportunities

AMHS enjoys the support of three parent-led, community supported groups. You can read about each group's mission and find out more under the Parent Tab on the School Website. Where possible, these groups work together to support AMHS in various ways and share a Facebook Page. AMHS also benefits from an active and involved SIC organization.

Partners in Education (PIE) is a 501(c)(3) entity that serves as the AMHS Parent Teacher Student Organization (PTSO). PIE provides an invaluable communication link for AMHS parents through the weekly Raptor Report. As well, PIE raises funds and organizes volunteers to support student life enrichment, staff appreciation and parent engagement events throughout the year. PIE gives direct financial support for class trips, school celebrations, teacher support and appreciation, and is committed to providing programs to enhance school spirit and enrich the high school experience for all AMHS students.

Sign up for the Raptor Report here, read it weekly to stay aware of AMHS community news.

ACADEMIC
FOUNDATION

The Academic Magnet Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization, has at its core the mission to enhance Magnet's long-term excellence. We fund important programs such as AP course training for teachers, classroom technology enhancements, college preparation services, and the very popular Summer Scholars orientation program for new students. Historically, we've also supported school awareness and diversity efforts, including the highly successful Advancing Charleston Excellence (ACE) program to recruit and mentor strong students from high-poverty index middle schools. Although the future can sometimes appear uncertain, our goal remains constant. The Foundation is here to ensure our school's high standards for quality, achievement and stewardship for years to come.

For more information or ways to get involved, contact us at academicmagnetfoundation@gmail.com.

Academic Magnet School Improvement Council
Broad-based Advisory Group to support Principal in achieving the School's Goals

The South Carolina State Legislature created SIC over 30 years ago to give each individual school a unified way for parents and community members to engage with their school. AMHS SIC is composed of our principal, teachers, students, parents and community members. The purpose is to plan, monitor, improve and evaluate the best education for our children.

Meetings are open, so if you are unable to commit long term, you are welcome to participate at any meeting.
