

South Carolina School Division Searching for a Superintendent

The Position - The Charleston County School District Board of Trustees seeks an outstanding educational leader to serve as superintendent. The start date for the new superintendent will be on or before July 1, 2023. Charleston County School District is an equal opportunity employer.

The District - Charleston County School District (CCSD) is a nationally accredited school district committed to providing equitable and quality educational opportunities for all of its students. CCSD is the second-largest school system in South Carolina and represents a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools spanning 1,300 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves approximately 50,000 students in 88 schools and specialized programs.

CCSD is a premier school system with the goals in which

- every child is supported in and out of school,
- every child succeeds academically,
- every child will graduate from high school prepared for employment in the modern workforce or credential completion or postsecondary degree, and
- every student, teacher, principal, and staff member is valued and respected with the opportunity to learn every day.
