Academic Magnet High School is delighted to welcome Officer Bonnell Williams as the new AMHS School Resource Officer

Officer Williams joins the Academic Magnet High School as a knowledgeable School Resource Officer with over nine years of experience in the role. Prior to becoming an SRO, Officer Williams worked in a variety of positions within law enforcement that helped prepare him to address the many different types of needs encountered within a school community.

A proud graduate of the Criminal Justice Academy in Columbia, S.C., Officer Williams also holds a Bachelors Degree in Criminal Justice from Benedict College.

Officer Williams is an active member of the local community and Murray United Methodist Church. In his work with the community Officer Williams volunteers for several local organizations including the American Red Cross and Low Country Food Bank. In his spare time he, “likes to walk, talk, see the sights and live life to the fullest.”

Asked about his thoughts for the upcoming school year he said, “I already know several of the school leadership team members and I am excited to join the lineup of caring adults at Academic Magnet. It makes all the difference to be able to bridge the gap between police and the community youth.”
