Parents,

Please attend this event to receive comprehensive information on your child's performance. You only need to choose one date to attend – (November 4, 2021 or November 5, 2021).

Purpose of Family Data Conferences

- To learn about your child's standardized test scores and Benchmark test scores such as MAP scores.
- To receive information on upcoming assessments and learn how your child is progressing toward these.
- To learn about the academic interventions in place for your child-based on their current assessment scores.
- To speak with school staff about your child's performance in classes.
- To review discipline data and determine the type of social and emotional support needed.

- To plan IGP's and Graduation tracking with School Counselor.
