

The Princeton Review

Do you need extra help with your homework? Tutor.com offers real time tutoring from 8am-10pm all week long. The K-12 Student Center includes Live Homework Help, WriteTutor Center, Test Prep Center, and a SkillsCenter Resource Library. Tutors are available with no appointment needed! Tutor.com features a variety of resources for students of all ages, and is available for FREE to CCSD students.

Just take the following steps to get started:

Step 1: Login to your Clever account.

Step 2: Find the Tutor.com icon and click on it to launch the app.

Step 3: Next, you'll be asked to enter your library card number. All CCSD students now have library account numbers under their CCSD username. For example, if your CCSD email address is DoeJoh0123@ccsdschools.com, then your library card number/username will be the first part of your CCSD email: DoeJoh0123.

Step 4: Next, you'll need to click the "Create an Account" link at the top right corner of the screen. Be sure to use your CCSD email for this step as well.

Step 5: Now you should be all signed in! Be sure to click the "Take a Tour" link to familiarize yourself with the site and all it has to offer. You can use this site to get help in many different subject areas.
