

JOIN LAING CHORUS!

Teacher: Ms. Howland

In chorus, you will:

- travel on fun performance trips to places like Carowinds, Universal, and Disney
- make tons of friends
- learn cool new music
- sing some of your favorites

Open to students of all experience levels. If you want to sing, learn, and have fun, there's a place in Laing Chorus for you. See you soon, singers!

About Me

Hello Laing Middle School! My name is Catherine Howland, and I am so excited to be joining Laing as the chorus director for the 2024-2025 school year. My middle school music experience was incredibly important to me, and my goal is to share that love of music with the students of Laing! My classroom is a welcoming place where every student can learn to sing, meet forever friends, and most importantly, have FUN.

Fun Facts

Hometown: Clemson, SC
Football team: Gamecocks
Favorite color: Yellow
Hobbies: Reading, hanging out with my friends, hiking
Random skill: I can say the alphabet backwards.

Experience

This will be my third year teaching. I spent two years teaching at a middle school in Berkeley County before taking a short break to get my master's degree. I have also taught multiple children's choirs with students as young as four years old! (Though I have a lot more fun teaching middle school.) I love to sing all types of music (including opera!), and I also play piano, ukulele, saxophone, and trumpet.

Education

I graduated from the University of South Carolina Honors College summa cum laude with a degree in Choral Music Education in 2020, and I am graduating from Carnegie Mellon University with my Masters in Vocal Performance this May!
