Who: Students, parents, school staff, and community members are encouraged to attend. Media outlets are welcome as well.

What: Students and staff at Academic Magnet High School (AMHS) are hosting their annual International Dinner. Food from around the world will be available; some of the countries that will be represented include Bangladesh, Egypt, France, India, Italy, Mexico, the Philippines, Poland, Taiwan, and Thailand.

The food is prepared by the families of AMHS students who are either from these countries outside the United States, or can trace their heritage back to those nations. The dinner is a community event sponsored by the school's Partners in Education, which is a parent support group that raises money to help fund and support teacher and school needs.

Tickets are $5 for students, $10 for adults, and $25 for families and can be purchased at the door on the day of the event.

Where: Academic Magnet High School, Cafeteria, 5109-A West Enterprise Street, North Charleston, SC 29405

When: Saturday, November 4, 2017 at 6:00 p.m.

For more information, contact the school's media specialist, Susan Henley, at (843) 746-1300.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
