Media Advisory

Garrett Academy Showcasing Students' Volunteer Efforts on "Garrett Gives Day"

Who: Students, parents, community members, and media outlets are welcome and encouraged to attend.

What: Gordon G. Garrett Academy of Technology is hosting "Garrett Gives Day" as a way to highlight several community service projects the scholars and staff have been involved in.

This semester, students at Garrett served in a Hunger Awareness Project (collected hundreds of canned goods for Lowcountry Food Bank), a Domestic Violence Awareness and Advocacy Event and Service Project (raised money and items to donate to My Sister's House), a Clean Water Project (raised money to support Water Missions International), and a Local Community Service Project (collected toys for Toys for Tots).

During the "Garrett Gives Day" event, the checks and items collected by the scholars will be presented to representatives from the local organizations.

Where: Gordon G. Garrett Academy of Technology, Gym, 2731 Gordon Street, North Charleston, SC 29405

When: Friday, December 15, 2017 at 10:45 a.m.

For more information, contact Principal Charity Summers at (843) 745-7126.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
