Media Advisory

Heritage Trust Federal Credit Union to Open Student-Run Branch at R.B. Stall High

Who: Media outlets are welcomed and encouraged to attend.

What: R.B. Stall High School students and staff, as well as representatives from Heritage Trust Federal Credit Union (HTFCU), are celebrating the grand opening of the new student-run HTFCU branch with a ribbon cutting ceremony. The event will feature members of the credit union's executive team, the HTFCU Board of Directors, along with local dignitaries and Charleston County School District Board of Trustees members.

The school's Banking Services program involves 16 students and a teacher; they participated in training at the Rivers Avenue branch of Heritage Trust during the summer. The student-run branch will be open during R.B. Stall's lunch hour; members will be able to make deposits, withdraw funds, make loan payments, and open memberships.

When: Wednesday, August 30, 2017 at 6:00 p.m. (media are asked to arrive 15 minutes before the event)

Where: R.B. Stall High School, 3625 Ashley Phosphate Rd., North Charleston, SC, 29418

For more information regarding this event, please contact Principal Jeremy Carrick at (843) 764-2200, or Assistant Principal Claudia Newbern at (843) 207-3730.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science,
