Sharon Randall to Serve as Interim Executive Director of Secondary Learning

Charleston, SC — Charleston County School District (CCSD) is proud to announce and welcome Sharon Randall as interim Executive Director of Secondary Learning. Randall has served as a CCSD administrator for eleven years, and is currently Principal of Thomas C. Cario Middle School.

Previously, Randall served as an assistant principal at Wando High School for six years under the leadership of the late Mrs. Lucy Beckham. Prior to her time at Wando, Randall was an assistant principal at Fort Dorchester High School for two years and head of school at a local K-12 private school. She began her career teaching for fourteen years, earning National Board Certification before transitioning to administration.

Randall offers a varied background in curriculum, professional development, data, student supports, organizational structures, and budgeting. She looks to develop talent, processes, and programs to benefit students through research, collaboration, and coaching.

Randall holds a Bachelor of Arts in English with a minor in Education from the University of North Carolina at Asheville, and a Master of Arts in Special Education from Furman University. She also earned a Secondary Education Administration and Supervision Certification from The Citadel.

Randall will transition to her new role in June 2018.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
