Who: Students, parents, school staff, and community members are encouraged to attend. Media outlets are welcome as well.

What: W.B. Goodwin Elementary School (WBGES) is hosting its 6th Annual C.A.T.C.H. (Coordinated Approach to Child Health) Night this week. The event is held each year to promote healthy choices and wellness to the students and their families.

WBGES is providing food, music, demonstrations, and games at no cost to the school community. Over 20 of the school's community business partners are scheduled to attend; they will set up informational and interactive booths that offer healthy food choices, nutritional education, physical activity, and wellness resources. Special guests for C.A.T.C.H. Night include Charlie T. RiverDog from the Charleston RiverDogs and Cool Ray of the South Carolina Stingrays.

Where: W.B. Goodwin Elementary School, 5501 Dorchester Road, North Charleston, SC 29418

When: Thursday, March 29, 2018; 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

For more information about C.A.T.C.H. Night, contact WBGES Publicity Representative Mary Stansell at (843) 767-5911.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
