Media Advisory

Electric Orchestra to Make Debut at North Charleston Creative Arts Elementary

Who: Students, parents, community members, and media outlets are welcome and encouraged to attend.

What: Scholars from North Charleston Creative Arts Elementary School (NCCAES) are set to perform in the first-ever "Electric Orchestra." They will play selections from multiple genres, including rock, hip-hop, pop, and country music, and will perform alongside local musicians.

The orchestra teacher at NCCAES, Andrew Price, came up with the idea for the event as a way to cross genres with classical instruments (i.e. violin, cello, viola) with modern music. The "Electric Orchestra" was created with support from DonorsChoose.org.

A social media hashtag, #RockingStrings2019, is associated with the "Electric Orchestra."

When: Friday, May 24, 2019 at 5:00 p.m.

Where: North Charleston Creative Arts Elementary School, 5200 Lackawanna Blvd., North Charleston, SC 29405

For more information about this performance, contact Andrew Price at (843) 529-3281.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools spanning 1,300 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
