Media Advisory

North Charleston Creative Arts Walking to School

Who: Students, parents, community members, and media outlets are welcomed and encouraged to attend.

What: Scholars from North Charleston Creative Arts Elementary School (NCCAES) will walk to school dressed as superheroes; this event was rescheduled due to inclement weather on National Walk to School Day (October 10, 2018). Families will donate $1.00 for each student dressed in a costume as a way to honor a former NCCAES student, Trenton Hamilton, who passed away this past summer due to cancer.

Money raised from this event will be sent to the Division of Pediatric Hematology/Oncology at MUSC Children's Hospital.

The Mayor of North Charleston, Keith Summey, is scheduled to attend and speak to families as well.

When: Wednesday, October 17, 2018 at 7:45 a.m.

Where: North Charleston Creative Arts Elementary School, 5200 Lackawanna Blvd., North Charleston, SC 29405

For more information about this event at NCCAES, contact Principal Eric Hansen at 843-529-3281.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
